

Effective Interviewing Techniques

Course Description

This course is designed for anyone who has to conduct interviews - whether you are a journalist, writer, researcher or someone who is required to undertake interviews face to face or over the phone as part of your job.

It should be noted that the course is not suitable for those wishing to conduct recruitment or HR related interviews.

The course covers asking the right questions, opening gambits, avoiding closed answers, keeping an interview on-track and how to ensure you leave an interview with the information you need.

The course also covers tips and tricks for dealing with reluctant or difficult interviewees.

Pre-Course Requirements

You need no previous experience to attend this course.
