

Presentation Skills

Course Description

This course is designed for those who wish to improve their performance when delivering presentations.

The course is also beneficial for anyone who has identified practical issues around their delivery style, needs specific coaching or finds delivering presentations a nerve-racking experience.

During the course we will identify your individual strengths and weaknesses and outline the practical steps that each participant can take to become an effective presenter.

You will be recorded delivering presentations during the course for constructive analysis and feedback.

Pre-Course Requirements

You need no previous experience of delivering presentations to attend this course.
